STATE COLLEGE LEADER

VOLUME LVI FORT HAYS KANSAS STATE COLLEGE, HAYS, KANSAS, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 24, 1963 NUMBER EIGHT

Homecoming Weekend Starts Friday

Drama Classes Get Pointers From Celeste

Drama classes at Fort Hays State received pointers and instruction from an Academy Award winner Wednesday and today following the arrival of Celeste Holm.

Miss Holm will conclude her visit on campus Friday at 8 p.m. with an Artists and Lectures series performance entitled "With Love and Laughter," in Sheridan Coliseum.

The presentation will be based on the question, "Has the relationship between men and women changed?" and she will pursue the answer through music, comedy and drama, drawing from the writings of Saroyan, Shakespeare, James Thurber, Richard Rodgers, Oscar Hammerstein and others.

Topics discussed by the star of "Bloomer Girl" and "Gentlemen's Agreement" in classes the past two days include creating a role, trends in the New York theater and problems that would-be actors and actresses face.

Miss Holm made her Broadway debut as the lusty and light-hearted Annie in Rodgers and Hammerstein's classic "Oklahoma."

Other high points in her career include her part as Anna in the Broadway run of "The King and I" and her co-starring roles with Frank Sinatra in "The Tender Trap" and "High Society."

Assisting her in her production here Friday night will be Wesley Addy, who has appeared in numerous films and on television, and William Roy.

Early dismissal of classes at 2:50 p.m. Friday will start a full weekend of Homecoming activities at Fort Hays State for students, parents, bands and other visitors.

A pep rally, starting at 5:45 p.m. with a serpentine parade, will be climaxed with bonfire festivities around 6:30. Leading the parade, which will begin at Custer Hall and continue past all-organized houses, will be the Homecoming queen candidates, football players, coaches and cheerleaders. Highlight of the rally will be the crowning of the Homecoming queen at the bonfire.

After the rally, Celeste Holm, winner of an Academy Award for her performance in "Gentlemen's Agreement," will present an evening of music, comedy and drama beginning at 8 p.m. in Sheridan Coliseum.

Classes Dismissed Next Friday During KSTA Convention

Fort Hays State campus will be the scene of the centennial convention of the Kansas State Teachers Assn. next Thursday and Friday, Oct. 31 and Nov. 1.

Approximately 2,000 visitors are expected for the two-day convention.

General classes will be dismissed at 5 p.m. Thursday. However, the evening classes will be held.

Dan Foster, La Crosse grade school principal and FHS graduate, is vice-president of the Hays convention and will preside at the opening session at 9:30 a.m. Thursday and the closing session Friday afternoon.

Keynote speakers are Dr. John H. Furbay, head of Trans-World Airlines' World Education program, and Dr. Dean F. Berkley, director of the bureau of field service at the University of Indiana.

Affiliated and associated groups scheduled to meet at FHS include the Kansas Coaches Assn. and the Kansas Assn. of School Librarians.

A coffee and registration for alumni at 8 a.m. in the Memorial Union will open Saturday's schedule. The traditional tug-of-war between the freshmen and sophomores, with the losers getting soaked in Big Creek, is scheduled for 9:30 a.m. at the Custer Hall Bridge. Last year the sophomores won the watery event.

The Homecoming parade, featuring 43 high school bands, the FHS and Emporia State marching bands and a variety of floats built by campus organizations, will head south on Main Street at 10:45 a.m. from 16th to 2nd street.

A smorgasbord for alumni will be held in the Union Cody Room from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. Special tables will be set up for the reunion classes of 1943, '48, '53 and '58.

Kickoff time for the FHS-Emporia State football game is 2 p.m. in Lewis Field Stadium. Half-time ceremonies will include the presentation of the queen and a performance by the FHS and Emporia State bands.

A special event on this year's Homecoming schedule is the dedication of four campus buildings. These dedications will begin at 5 p.m. at the building sites. Buildings

Homecoming, Election Heads Last ASC Meeting

The final meeting of the All-Student Council of 1962-63 was held Tuesday with the approval of two elected council members and final plans for Homecoming heading the agenda.

Presiding was ASC chairman Marvin Martin.

The approval of one council member followed a decision handed down by All-Student Court.

Merwin Colburn, Russell sophomore and a member of the Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity, was elected representative of unmarried students living in unorganized housing.

ASC disputed Colburn's eligibility on the grounds that he was a member of a student organization. However, the court ruled in favor of Colburn because the ASC constitution does not stipulate that a student living in unorganized housing who is a member of an organized group cannot run for the office of unorganized student representative.

In the decision, the court advocated a change in the constitution to clarify this point.

The other representative approved by the governing body was Jerry Sherrill, Burrton senior, who was elected as a fraternity representative. His acceptance followed a mistake in the counting of the ballots.

Only two representatives may be elected for fraternity representative when 120 votes are cast, but one more vote allows the addition of another representative.

When the ballots were counted, it was overlooked that 139 students had voted.

In finalizing plans for Homecoming, ASC formally approved all petitions, except one from Custer Hall, which was never turned in.

A representative from the women's residence hall said they were not aware of the requirement for

Student-Principal Conference Planned

Freshman college students will have the opportunity to meet with their high school principals at the annual Student-Principal Conference to be held Nov. 12 on campus.

"We feel that both students and principals benefit from these meetings," said Dr. B. W. Broach, chairman of the conference. "The principal is able to help the student with any problems he may have adjusting to college life. In turn, the student offers suggestions to the principal for improvement of his high school in the way of classwork or activities."

The meetings are planned so that each student should have the chance to meet with his principal. "We urge students to take advantage of these meetings—to help themselves and their former school," said Dr. Broach.

Little Theater Cast Picked

The cast of the Little Theater play, "Inherit the Wind," has been announced by Harriet Ketchum, director and associate professor of speech at FHS. It will be presented Dec. 5 and 6 at the Hays High School auditorium.

"Inherit the Wind" is the story of the trial of a small town school teacher, who defied a law prohibiting the teaching of evolution. Two well-known lawyers are brought in to present the case, which brings out many controversial ideas and traditions.

Four Points Cost Debaters Kansas State Tourney Win

Fort Hays debaters missed winning the first place trophy at the Kansas State Novice Tournament in Manhattan by a mere four points.

Novice debaters, Jerry Michaelis and Clare Swann, Russell freshmen, had four wins and no losses, defeating University of Wichita, William Jewell, Bethel and Washburn. The team was only four speaker points away from first-place Washburn University.

The negative side was debated by Cheryl Bentley, Garden City, and Connie Leuty, Ellsworth. This team suffered only one loss while defeating Rockhurst, Creighton University and Southwest Missouri State. They lost to Coffeyville Junior College.

Looking at the record, Coach Jim Costigan remarked, "This is an outstanding success for these beginning debaters. There is, of course, room for improvement."

The debaters' record for the year is now 11 wins and one loss.

Advanced debaters will participate in one of the hardest tournaments in the nation at Emporia this weekend. Other participating schools include Dartmouth, Boston College, Univer-

Phi Eta Sigma Initiates Five Into Membership

Five new members were initiated into Phi Eta Sigma, freshman men's honor society, Oct. 17. New members are Roger Burroughs, Washington, D. C. sophomore; Don R. Forgue, Damar freshman; Mike A. Hoge, Great Bend sophomore; Leland L. Thaete, Downs freshman, and John Trapp, Waldo freshman. To become eligible for membership, a student must attain a 2.5 or better grade average during his freshman year.

ARTIST'S CONCEPTION — This is the way the new speech and music center, Malloy Hall, will look when it is completed, hopefully by the spring semester of 1965.

Cunningham Says . . .

Lack of On-Campus Housing May Curtail FHS Enrollment

"If our applications for enrollment increase at the rate they did this fall, I don't see how we can catch up on the lack of on-campus housing," President M. C. Cunningham said recently.

However, the President went on to say that housing was being pushed as much as possible and that a deciding factor in how much would be obtained in the next few years was dependent on funds.

"College housing hasn't increased in proportion to enrollment," he commented, before saying that if the expected enrollment boom isn't realized a major reason for it will be "lack of housing."

Another aspect to the problem was that the town does not "have the housing available that many of the other colleges in the state has," said Cunningham.

The problem will be lessened with the construction of a new $420,000 married students building, which will have 36 apartments.

The three-story building will be constructed west of Agnew Hall, women's residence hall, and north of Wooster Place, married students apartments, and work by the Busboom and Rau Construction Co., of Salina is expected to start in the near future.

The opening of McMindes Hall for women this fall "made a dent" in the housing problem, said Cunningham. But the president feels that the addition of a second wing to the hall, which will bring the number of students who can live there over 600, will be an important step in lessening the shortage.

President Cunningham said that construction on this new wing should start within the next couple years and it is his hope it will "not be later than the fall of 1965."

Construction has taken other avenues on the FHS campus. Work has started toward the $1 million speech and music center and future work will include a $1 million library building.

Fort Hays Singers Perform At Coldwater High

The Fort Hays Singers, musical group under the direction of Don Stout, assistant professor of music, are performing at the Coldwater High School this afternoon. The Singers will also participate in a workshop with the Coldwater high school choral groups.

FLOAT WORKERS — A common sight at the Hays Armory this week has been organizations working on Homecoming floats. Here members of Phi Sigma Epsilon fraternity stuff napkins, with the help of several other students.

IRS Representatives To Interview Students

Representatives from the Internal Revenue Service will be on the Fort Hays State campus to interview students interested in a career in the IRS Wednesday.

Interviews with students majoring in accounting, business administration and related fields will start at 9 a.m., with succeeding interviews beginning at 20 minute intervals.

The IRS is interested in candidates for careers as Internal Revenue agents, Revenue officers, tax technicians and special agents.

Students interested in these interviews should contact the Placement Office immediately.

Last Call Sounded For Penguin Membership

The Penguin Club and synchronized swimming class membership deadline is Wednesday afternoon, according to Nancy Cotham, sponsor of the group.

Students interested in joining should meet at 4 p.m. in the college pool in Sheridan Coliseum.

The objectives of the two groups are to promote better swimmers, improve aquatic skills, develop water poise, learn synchronized swimming stunts, perfect strokes, learn to swim with musical accompaniment, learn choreography and improve gracefulness in a different element.

Right Across From The Campus

Pardon me if I sound as if the executive position I've landed deals with the whole future of the world.

It does.

Certainly, there's no organization today conducting more vital business than the business of the United States Air Force. And very few organizations that give a college graduate greater opportunities for responsibility and growth.

As an Air Force officer, you'll be a leader on the Aerospace Team—with good pay, a 30-day paid vacation each year, educational opportunities.

How can you get started? For many, the best way is through Air Force ROTC. But if you missed out on AFROTC, or if there's no unit on your campus, you can still apply for Air Force Officer Training School. This three-month course leads to a commission as a second lieutenant in the United States Air Force.

For more information about Air Force OTS, see your local Air Force representative.

U. S. Air Force

Welcome to Homecoming

Alumni, parents, friends, welcome to Fort Hays State.

At every Homecoming, or any long anticipated event, students often find themselves being swallowed up in the duties of entertaining and acquainting family and friends with the college and community. Students on this campus are pleased and proud to do this and hope that their services are adequate.

May your trip be a safe one, your stay be enjoyable and your returns be often.

A Good Decision

In Tuesday night's ASC meeting, one of the items of business was approval of Homecoming queen candidate petitions.

By a vote of the governing body, the candidate from a women's residence hall was found ineligible on the grounds that a petition had not been in by the deadline.

It is unfortunate that this hall will not be represented in the queen contest and this was no doubt a disappointment to many.

However, it is evident that certain requirements had not been observed and that the fault for the incident rests with the eliminated group.

The situation was complicated by the fact that petitions from two other groups apparently had been misplaced by ASC, but were obtained in time to have the candidate's name on the ballot, which was printed on Thursday, the day after the deadline. One of these petitions was seen by several council members in advance of the deadline.

Remaining steadfast to former decisions is to be commended as long as such decisions do not hamper progress or overlook better judgment. While approval of the petitions was not handled as smoothly as it might have been, The Leader believes ASC followed the most intelligent course possible in its decision.

Disappointing Turnout

Out of slightly less than 3,900 students on campus, 832 managed to find to vote in the All-Student Council election. Only a little over 100 more votes and 25 per cent of the eligible voters would have turned out.

In one division two candidates tied for the office—with one vote each. This definitely indicates competition.

One of the fraternity representatives now on ASC was elected by three votes. This person received the third highest number of votes for this office and received competition from three candidates who got one vote each.

The highest number of ballots cast for an individual in a class presidential election was 118; for vice-president, 143; for secretary-treasurer, 238.

In a recent edition The Leader offered a few suggestions to ASC "in hopes of receiving a stronger governing body."

Two weeks ago The Leader urged a "large turnout" which would "reflect support of ASC and expectancy for an improved governing body."

Time will tell if the efficiency of student council has been improved, but the past election is not a good indication that students expect—or want—improvement. Nor does it indicate increased support for ASC on campus.

If the will of the student is to be an important factor in policies and improvements on this campus, every student must take an active part in student government and make his desires known to ASC representatives.

The Leader may criticize this governing body for what it does not do, but it can only bear with them on issues which are stalemated because of a passive student attitude.

State College Leader

One of the oldest student organizations on the Fort Hays State campus, founded in 1906. Recipient of first class rating by the Associated Collegiate Press Critical Service and an A rating by National School Yearbook Association, both during the 1961-62 and 1962-63 college years.

The State College Leader is published weekly (Thursday) during the school year except during college holidays and examination periods, and bi-weekly during June and July. Published at Meritt Allen Hall on the campus of Fort Hays State College, Hays, Kansas. Mail subscription price: $7.50 per semester or $15.00 per calendar year. Second-class postage paid at Hays, Kansas.

Failing Freshmen Often Can't Beat Shock Treatment

(ACP) — "Most freshman failures in college are caused not by stupidity but by shock."

STUDENT LIFE, Washington University, St. Louis, Mo., took this quote (by Dr. Jules Coleman, Yale University psychiatrist) to Mr. Donald Zytowski of Washington University's student counseling service.

"It's true, unfortunately," Zytowski said. "WU attracts some very able students from a great many excellent high schools. Each of these freshmen is a 'top banana' in some way . . ."

"After the first glory of the freshman camp, new students' day, fraternity and sorority rush wears off, and around the time of the first class quizzes, the freshman begins to realize in some vague way he is no longer the exclusive star he used to be, but is surrounded by stars. He may be just an average Joe in this crowd."

"This is when the shock begins."

"Those who cannot admit to themselves that they are not still the star they were in high school are the ones who stay in shock," Zytowski said. "They suddenly develop a consuming interest in something like dorm politics, Greek competition for trophies, the finer points of bridge, writing a great play of anything to divert themselves from their fear that they cannot compete successfully with the other freshmen."

turning in a petition, which was due Oct. 16, but said that an election had been held and a candidate chosen.

Two other petitions were voted on. Petitions from Sigma Sigma Sigma and Tau Kappa Epsilon were apparently misplaced by ASC, but recovered before ballots were printed. In the case of the Tri Sigs' petition, several ASC members said they had seen it prior to the deadline.

Committee appointments and plans for such things as flowers, cars, Homecoming crown and robe and selection of drivers were also made.

The council said an area for queen candidates and their dates and ASC members and their escorts would be marked off at the game.

to be dedicated are Davis, McMinder, McGrath and Wiest Halls. Miss Maude McMinder, Osborne, Dr. Robert T. McGrath and Edwin Davis, Hays, long-time faculty members after whom three of the buildings are named, will be present as well as Mrs. C. F. Wiest, Hays, widow of the faculty member after whom Wiest Hall is named.

The annual Homecoming dinner is planned at 6:30 p.m. in the Union Black and Gold Room. A business meeting of the college's Alumni Assn. will be held during the dinner.

Concluding the day's events will be the Homecoming dance beginning at 8:30 p.m. in Sheridan Coliseum.

Civil Service Openings At FHS Grow With College

Hays' economy is getting a boost from a large group of seldom-heard-of workers at Fort Hays State.

Although the limelight usually focuses on students and faculty, about 215 civil service workers form a behind-the-scenes crew which keeps the college wheels turning smoothly. With a monthly payroll of nearly $50,000, these employees enable the college to operate much like a self-sustaining community.

Growth of the college has had much the same effect as a new industry in the community in that it has meant more jobs for more people.

Take McMinder Hall for women as an example. When the McMinder food service begins operating in November, more than 20 jobs will have opened as a result of the hall's operation. A dietitian, 11 food service workers, a maintenance repairman, five custodians and two housemothers will be working full time, assisted by many part-time student employees.

Carpenters, auto mechanics, groundskeepers, clerical workers, storekeepers, accountants, farmers and many other types of jobs are included in the college's work force.

About 93 persons are employed in clerical positions in campus offices, working as typists and stenographers in secretarial jobs.

When building and repairing needs arise, carpenters, plumbers, an electrician, an air-conditioning mechanic, two painters and seven general maintenance repairmen can be called. Two auto mechanics maintain the college's 25 vehicles; a landscape foreman and groundsman care for the campus yard; four boiler tenders see that the power plant functions smoothly. Twenty-five custodians also are needed to clean college buildings.

About 64 persons, including cooks, dietitians and cafeteria managers, are employed in the food program at the college's five residence halls and the Memorial Union. Housemothers, maids and repairmen also are on the staff in each residence hall and a meatcutter processes meats for the halls and union.

Civil service employees also work in the duplicating and printing services, the college farm, warehouse, business office and other areas.

Nearly all positions require an examination to qualify under Kansas State Civil Service regulations, according to Kenneth Hawk, who is in charge of locating persons to fill vacancies.

The growth of the civil service force has increased at about the same pace as the college, Hawk said. Ten years ago, when enrollment was less than half of today's 3,850 students, workers numbered only 97, compared to the present 215.

"As the college grows, so will its civil service staff," said Hawk.

Building Dedications Honor Former Faculty Members

Four former faculty members for whom campus buildings have been named will be honored at short, private, dedication ceremonies at 5 p.m. Saturday.

Dr. Robert T. McGrath, Edwin Davis and Mrs. C. F. Wiest, all of Hays, and Miss Maude McMIndes of Osborne, as well as friends and former students, will be on hand for the picture presentations, tributes and response.

Head of the department of education Dr. W. Clement Wood will relate the contributions of Dr. Robert T. McGrath, professor emeritus, for whom the men's residence hall has been named.

Dr. McGrath served as head of the department and director of teacher training from 1930 to 1949 and is responsible for the establishment and development of the teacher training program at FHS. He retired in 1954 at age 70.

The first high-rise women's residence hall on the campus will be dedicated to Maude McMIndes, who established the education block adopted by the college in 1940. FHS was the first college in Kansas to initiate this program.

Miss McMIndes, a 1916 FHS graduate, was appointed director of teacher training in 1935 and served in this position until her retirement in 1952. Margaret van Ackeren, associate professor of library science, will give the tribute to Miss McMIndes.

Wiest Hall was named for the late Dr. Charles Wiest, professor of English and philosophy at FHS for 21 years. Dr. Wiest began his career as a minister and was pastor of the Lutheran Church in Hays for 18 years.

He died in the 1951 flood while attempting to rescue a student who roomed in his house. Dr. Samuel Hamilton, professor of philosophy, will conduct the dedication.

Edwin Davis, who established the industrial arts department and helped plan the building which bears his name, taught at the college for 41 years.

Davis, a 1915 FHS graduate, retired in 1957. Dr. Richard Cain, chairman of the division of industrial arts, and Ralph Huffman, associate professor of industrial arts, will dedicate Davis Hall.

Scubanauts, New Swim Group, Plans Explanatory Session

Scubanauts, a newly organized scuba and skin diving club, will hold a meeting for all interested students at 7 tonight in Picken 110.

The underwater enthusiasts met at the Fort Hays State Lake Retreat at Cedar Bluff Sunday afternoon. They made a reconnaissance of the cove and took temperatures and depth recordings. Strong turbidity due to heavy waves hampered the location of underwater snags and their removal.

Divers who took part were Irvin Sutley, Mill Valley, Calif.,

Seniors To Meet Thursday

Senior class members will discuss their class gift at a meeting at 4 p.m. Tuesday in the Memorial Union Gold Room. Ron Hosie, Abilene, class president, said it is important that all seniors attend the meeting.

HAPPINESS CAN'T BUY MONEY

With tuition costs steadily on the rise, more and more undergraduates are looking into the student loan plan. If you are one such, you would do well to consider the case of Leonid Sigafos.

Leonid, the son of an unemployed bean gleaner in Straightened Circumstances, Montana, had his heart set on going to college, but his father, alas, could not afford to send him. Leonid applied for a Regents Scholarship, but his reading speed, alas, was not very rapid—three words an hour—and before he could finish the first page of his exam, the Regents had closed their briefcases crossly and gone home. Leonid then applied for an athletic scholarship, but he had, alas, only a single athletic skill—picking up beebies with his toes—and this, alas, aroused only fleeting enthusiasm among the coaches.

And then—happy day!—Leonid learned of the student loan plan: he could borrow money for his tuition and repay it in easy installments after he left school!

Happily Leonid enrolled in the Southeastern Montana College of Lanolin and Restoration Drama and happily began a college career that grew happier year by year. Indeed, it became altogether ecstatic in his senior year because Leonid met a coed named Anna Livia Plurabelle with hair like beaten gold and eyes like two sockets full of Lake Louise. Love gripped them in its big moist palm, and they were betrothed on St. Crispin's Day.

...but he had, alas, only a single athletic skill

Happily they made plans to be married immediately after commencement—plans, alas, that were never to come to fruition because Leonid, alas, learned that Anna Livia, like himself, was in college on a student loan, which meant that he not only had to repay his own loan after graduation but also Anna Livia's and the job, alas, that was waiting for Leonid at the Butte Otter Works simply did not pay enough, alas, to cover both loans, plus rent and food and clothing and television repairs.

Heavy hearted, Leonid and Anna Livia sat down and lit Marlboro Cigarettes and tried to find an answer to their problem—and, sure enough, they did! I do not know whether or not Marlboro Cigarettes helped them find an answer; all I know is that Marlboros taste good and look good and filter good, and when the clouds gather and the world is black as the pit from pole to pole, it is a heap of comfort and satisfaction to be sure that Marlboros will always provide the same easy pleasure, the same unstinting tobacco flavor, in all times and climes and conditions. That's all I know.

Leonid and Anna Livia, I say, did find an answer—a very simple one. If their student loans did not come due until they left school, why then they just wouldn't leave school! So after receiving their bachelor's degrees, they re-enrolled and took master's degrees. After that they took doctor's degrees—loads and loads of them—until today Leonid and Anna Livia, both aged 87, both still in school, hold doctorates in Philosophy, Humane Letters, Jurisprudence, Veterinary Medicine, Civil Engineering, Optometry, Woodpulp, and Dewey Decimals.

Their student loans, at the end of the last fiscal year, amounted to a combined total of nineteen million dollars—a sum which they probably would have found some difficulty in repaying had not the Department of the Interior recently declared them a National Park.

You don't need a student loan—just a little loose change—to grab a pack of smoking pleasure: Marlboros, sold in all fifty states in familiar soft pack and Flip-Top box.

Rolfs Finds Skull Of Fossil Fish

Mr. Marvin Rolfs, assistant professor of mathematics, found a one-foot skull and lower jaws of a fossil fish and presented it to the museum in Forsyth Library. The skull, which came from a seven or eight foot Ichthyodectes fish, was discovered last summer in the chalk beds of Castle Rock in Gove and Trego counties. The skull was prepared for display by Orville Bonner, a graduate student from Leoti, and may be viewed within the next week or two in the paleontology room.

Graduate Schools Require Tests

Students required to take the Miller Analogies Test, a high-level intelligence test required for admission to graduate school by many universities, may make appointments with Linda Reed, FHS Psychological Service Center secretary, in Rarick Hall, Room 116, or by calling extension 256.

The service center was recently approved by the Psychological Corporation for administration of the test, which takes about 50 minutes and carries a fee of one dollar, which is used to send the test report to three schools indicated by the student.

Two universities which require the test are Kansas State University, Manhattan, and Kansas University, Lawrence.

Roamers Romp GDI's, 43-6 For Men's Football Title

Richard Jarvis, Almena sophomore, carried the ball across for four touchdowns, caught two extra point attempts and intercepted three passes to spearhead the Roamers' win over the GDIs, 44-6, for the IM school football championship.

Bud Humphrey, Russell sophomore, the Roamer quarterback, completed 18 of 33 passes, four for touchdowns and two for extra points. The Roamers moved for 273 yards and GDIs for 158.

With only 36 seconds elapsed in the first period Rodney Innes, Phillipsburg freshman, intercepted a GDI pass and lateraled off to teammate Don Givens, Phillipsburg sophomore, for the first touchdown.

The aggressive Roamers scored another TD as soon as they received possession of the ball on a pass from Humphrey to Givens to Jarvis.

The lone GDI score came late in the first quarter. A pass from Wayne Stahl, Natoma freshman, to Gary Draper, Glade freshman set up the touchdown and a Stahl to Draper pass put the ball over.

Playing for the Roamers besides those previously mentioned was Lyle Smith, Phillipsburg; Jim Griffin, Garden City; Jack Jantz, Greensburg; Ron Augustine, Lenora; Vic Hays, Phillipsburg; and Steve Robinson, Phillipsburg. All are sophomores.

Past Tiger Grid Stars Now Coach

After four years as college football players, Ron Gardner and Jerry Strecker now stand on the sidelines as graduate assistant coaches on the Tiger squad.

Both agreed that there is more to coaching than playing ball.

"When you are out on the field there is one objective," said Strecker, "to play your position as best you can. As a coach one has to watch all 11 men, inform the players what they are doing wrong and then tell and show them how to correct it."

Strecker

Gardner

"Now that I'm on the other side of the fence, I see things much differently," said Gardner.

The men said they find coaching enjoyable, however, they miss playing the game.

As graduate assistants, part of Strecker's duties are to aid Bengal head coach Wayne McConnell with varsity coaching chores.

Gardner is coaching the junior varsity while helping assistant coach Ed McNeil with scouting duties.

Former line stalwarts, they have been especially useful in grooming the Tiger line.

Both men were four-year lettermen and starters. Gardner, who hails from Abilene, played his college football career at tackle and won a berth on the all-CIC second offensive team as a senior and earned a honorable mention rating as a junior.

Strecker, a Russell product, started as linebacker during his freshman campaign and specialized as offensive center the next three years.

With a double major in business and physical education, Strecker graduated last spring. Gardner also graduated with a double major, industrial arts and physical education.

They are now working on their master's degrees in P.E. While undergraduates they were on the honor roll several semesters.

Tennis, Horseshoe Finals Played Off

Cecil Von Achen, Pratt junior, slammed his way to the school tennis championship by defeating George Kay, Hays junior, and Jim Hopper, Russell freshman.

Following Von Achen and Hopper were Tom Leiker, Hays senior, and Jim Griffin, Scott City freshman, fourth.

The organizational doubles division found the Sig Ep team of Mike Leas, Hays sophomore, and Mervin Colburn, Russell sophomore, defeating the TKE team of Larry Nelson, Oberlin junior, and Kenneth Brown, Kinsley junior, for the championship.

Don Herron, Kinsley junior, and Ted Witt, Hudson senior, captured third for the Delta Sigs and Raymond Russell, Hobbs, N. M. senior, and Gary Adams, Colby junior, placed fourth for the AKLs.

The Delta Sigs took the top spots in the horseshoe singles and doubles tournaments while the Sig Taus placed second in both events.

Jack Campbell, Macksville junior, edged out Leroy Sawyer, Lewis senior 21-20, coming from behind 19-20 with the last two pitches to win. Following Campbell and Sawyer were AKL Ken Pitman, Liberal senior, third and TKE Paul Gooch, Hugoton freshman, fourth.

Making up the winning team in the doubles competition were Ted Witt, Hudson senior; and Don Herron, Kinsley junior.

Jerry Sherrill, Kilgore, Tex. senior and Marlin Butler, Lewis junior, of Sigma Tau Gamma were beaten by the Witt-Herron combination, 21-6 for the championship. Taking third were Phi Sigs, David Wolls, Wichita freshman and Kenneth Witterick, Brooklyn, N. Y. senior. Fourth place went to AKLs Stephen Gill, Phillipsburg sophomore and Larry Robinson, Downs senior.

Women's IM Volleyball Finals Finished, Touch Football Starts

Touch football in women's intramurals got under way Wednesday afternoon with 90 coeds participating on nine teams.

The games are scheduled from 4:50 to 6 p.m., Monday through Thursday and being played on the band field west of Albertson Hall.

The teams are divided into two leagues, Gold and Black. Gold League teams are BB's, Misfits, Stompers and 49ers. Black League teams are Varsity Squad, Blobs, Bengals, TDs and Fade-Aways.

Each team will play in round robin.

Deadline for Women's Recreation Assn. membership is 7:30 p.m. Wednesday at the annual WRA Halloween party in the Men's Gym.

The party is a costume affair and there will be a best costume award. The evening will be spent playing games.

The Stars from the Sun League in the IM volleyball tournament took first place in the inter-league playoff, followed by the Sunflow-ers of the Flower League. Both teams had a 6-0 record going into the finals.

Emporia State Next . . .

Tigers Sharpen Claws for Homecoming Clash Saturday

"Emporia State is going to be tough and will be sporting the best passing attack in the league," warned Coach Wayne McConnell.

Led by quarterback Don Wrench, who is leading the CIC as passing with a 108 yards per game average, the Hornets will be running out of a T-formation, an I-formation and a "shotgun" offense when they invade Lewis Field Stadium Saturday as the Tigers' Homecoming opponent. Game time is 2 p.m.

Supplying the hard running for Emporia State will be 230-pound fullback Jim Anderson, halfback Reuben Early, and Wrench.

Superior lineplay should be seen in tackle Bill Eikerman, Clay Center junior, and much of the passing should be directed toward league leading receiver Ray Schrick.

During the past week the Tiger squad has been working on stopping Wrench and his passing and building a wall to halt Anderson and Early up the middle.

Back in action this Saturday will be Max VanLaningham at defensive halfback, Jesse Kennis at slotback and defensive linebacker, and Charlie Canty at halfback. All missed action because of injuries.

With Larry Bates and Ken Palmgren out for the rest of the season with injuries, Paul Monty, Concordia sophomore will be starting his first game at center and Ronnie Morel will see action at defensive safety.

McConnell praised freshman Bob Johnson for his first starting game at quarterback. End Bill Walters was commended at what McConnell said was his best showing of the season. Ken Palmgren played excellently until he was injured.

Larry Noffsinger was also named by McConnell for playing a good game and Bill Ham was also mentioned good defense. Bob Anthony also and Ron Schumacher showed up with their best performances of the season on defense.

The Tiger passing attack was the best of the season and the Bengals plan to throw more passes now that Johnson is working at quarterback, according to McConnell.

In Saturday's game at Pittsburg, the favored Gorillas drove to a 28-0 lead before the Tigers managed to score. The contest was watched by an overflow homecoming crowd of 11,000.

Fumbles played a big part in the contest as six of the eight touchdowns scored were the result of eight fumbles. Both of the FHS scores came on seldom seen fumble returns.

Dudley Fryman, 213-pound sophomore tackle, scored the first touchdown after scooping up a Gorilla fumble and running 65 yards.

Halfback Ronnie Morel also snared a loose ball and ran 77 yards to bring home the other Tiger score.

A stiff Gorilla defense held the Tiger rushing to only 51 yards, while enabling the Gorillas to control the ball throughout most of the contest.

The Tigers, however, had their best passing performance of the season as they completed five of 16 attempts for 62 yards.

Freshman Bob Johnson piloted the injury-ridden Tiger team, handling all the passing chores and most of the quarterbacking. His favorite passing target was halfback Bob Anthony, who caught three aeriels.

Senior Larry Bates quarterbacked one series of offensive plays before being knocked out midway through the third period. Ken Palmgren, senior center, also received a head injury. McConnell doubts that either will return to action this season.

Leading the Tiger defense was Dave Jones who turned in 19 tackles. Behind him was Jack Johnson with 14. Other outstanding players on the defense were Bates, Bill Walters, Ken Ruda, Ken Dreiling and Jack Hazlett.

FHS punter Ronnie Morel averaged 44.5 yards on six punts.

E-State Jayvees Spill FHS Juniors

Emporia State's junior varsity, down one touchdown at halftime, came back with two scores in the third period to defeat the Fort Hays State jayvees, 13-6, Monday afternoon at Emporia.

The loss was the third for the Tiger juniors after two previous setbacks to Kearney State's juniors, 13-7 and 20-0.

The small Tiger squad, reduced to 24 players by injuries, got its only score after taking over from Emporia on the Hornet 16-yard line.

Jan Kilbourne, Hugoton halfback, scored the TD on an eight-yard sweep around right end. A bad snap ruined the extra-point attempt.

The tying touchdown came after Emporia recovered a Tiger fumble on the FHS 40-yard line. Ken Corberly, Hornet quarterback, passed for all 40 yards to the goal with the last 10 yards completing the drive on a pass to end Phil LaCour. The extra point failed.

Again the Tigers failed to jell, and the larger Emporia team marched 55 yards for the winning tally. Halfback Dick Birkholz tallied on a four-yard plunge, and Dave Hunt kicked the extra point.

Leading the Tiger rushing attack were fullback Tommy Stevens, halfback Ken Brown, and quarterback Dennis Harris. Stevens carried 21 times for 48 yards.

The Tigers gained 185 total offense yards to 292 for Emporia State.
